

I believe that the exemption for radio and TV stations to be able to call and solicit is unwarranted and breaches the intent of the legislation. There is no reason for them to be exempted, other than the fact that they have lobbied so hard (and apparently successfully) to you.

We are being inundated with calls and interruptions by marketing firms and solicitations - yes, even from radio and TV stations.

Your help would be appreciated.

Thank you